Symposium: "U.S.-China Economic Relations"

Date/Time: 3/13/2008 11:00:00 AM

Location: Olin Theater

Cost: Free

Details: The Chinese Studies Program will invite Dr. Penelope Prime (Professor of Economics in the School of Economics & Business at Mercer University and Director of the China Research Center in Atlanta) to give a lecture on U.S.-China Economic Relations. China's progress with economic reforms has helped the country become a major recipient of foreign direct investment and a major exporter of manufactured products. The U.S. imports many products from China, adding to the already substantial U.S. trade deficit. Other issues between the two countries have also become challenging, such as the safety of products, labor conditions in China, environmental concerns, and exchange rate issues. Both countries have benefited enormously from the U.S.-China relationship, but careful communication and diplomacy will be required to make sure we stay on the right path.

Creating Sudoku Puzzles

Date/Time: 3/7/2008 3:00:00 PM

Location: Olin Teaching Theater

Cost: Free

Details: For four days (and nights) in February, a team of three Wofford students (Shay Ellison, Manan Gupta, and Stephen Strickland) participated in The Mathematical Contest in Modeling, an international contest sponsored by COMAP. With a choice of two problems, the team tackled the problem of developing an algorithm to construct Sudoku puzzles of varying difficulty. Today, Friday, March 7, at 3 p.m. in the Olin Teaching Theater (OL 101), the team will make a short presentation followed by a question-answer panel about the contest and their model. Refreshments will follow in the Mathematics/Computer Science Suite, Olin 204. Join us to hear about the contest and to celebrate their achievement.

Location: McMillan Theater

Cost: Free

Details: There will be a showing of the documentary Invisible Children that will be followed by a discussion of current events in Uganda (including the current peace talks) and the mission of Invisible Children. Invisible Children is a film about the plight of child soldiers and night commuters in northern Uganda. The documentary was filmed in 2003 when three young men from Southern California (then in their early 20s) traveled to Sudan "to find a story." Instead they found themselves in northern Uganda, learning about a conflict that was then relatively unknown to the international community.

Date/Time: 3/12/2008 7:00:00 PM

Location: McMillan Theater

Cost: Free

Details: There will be a showing of the documentary "Invisible Children" that will be followed by a discussion of current events in Uganda (including the current peace talks) and the mission of Invisible Children. "Invisible Children" is a film about the plight of child soldiers and night commuters in northern Uganda. The documentary was filmed in 2003 when three young men from Southern California (then in their early 20s) traveled to Sudan "to find a story." Instead they found themselves in northern Uganda, learning about a conflict that was then relatively unknown to the international community. Everyone is welcome to come.

Upcoming Events

Symposium: "U.S.-China Economic Relations"

Date/Time: 3/13/2008 11:00:00 AM

Location: Olin Theater

Cost: Free

Details: The Chinese Studies Program will invite Dr. Penelope Prime (Professor of Economics in the School of Economics & Business at Mercer University and Director of the China Research Center in Atlanta) to give a lecture on U.S.-China Economic Relations. China's progress with economic reforms has helped the country become a major recipient of foreign direct investment and a major exporter of manufactured products. The U.S. imports many products from China, adding to the already substantial U.S. trade deficit. Other issues between the two countries have also become challenging, such as the safety of products, labor conditions in China, environmental concerns, and exchange rate issues. Both countries have benefited enormously from the U.S.-China relationship, but careful communication and diplomacy will be required to make sure we stay on the right path.

Shape Note Singing at Wofford Saturday

Date/Time: 3/15/2008 9:00:00 AM

Location: AAAS Room, Burwell Building

Cost: Free

For the past 14 years, Wofford has been the host for the South Carolina State Shape-Note Singing in memory of William Walker. A Spartanburg resident, "Singin' Billy" Walker, helped bring musical literacy to remote country churches around the South in the mid-1800's by collecting and arranging Appalachian folks remote country churches around the South in the mid 1900's by collecting and arranging Appalachian folk spirituals for a cappella four-part harmony. As audiences saw in the movie "Cold Mountain," singers who come from all over the Southeast will use both the Christian Harmony and Sacred Harp, the most important of the early fa-so-la hymnals. Everyone is encouraged to participate, but you may just watch if you wish. The program begins at 9 a.m. and continues until about 3 p.m. in the AAAS Room of the Burwell Building. Admission is free — Come and go as your schedule permits — No experience required - No pre-registration. For more information, contact Doyle Boggs.

Symposium: "U.S.-China Economic Relations"

Date/Time: 3/13/2008 11:00:00 AM

Location: Olin Theater

Cost: Free

Details: The Chinese Studies Program will invite Dr. Penelope Prime (Professor of Economics in the School of Economics & Business at Mercer University and Director of the China Research Center in Atlanta) to give a lecture on U.S.-China Economic Relations. China's progress with economic reforms has helped the country become a major recipient of foreign direct investment and a major exporter of manufactured products. The U.S. imports many products from China, adding to the already substantial U.S. trade deficit. Other issues between the two countries have also become challenging, such as the safety of products, labor conditions in China, environmental concerns, and exchange rate issues. Both countries have benefited enormously from the U.S.-China relationship, but careful communication and diplomacy will be required to make sure we stay on the right path.

Shape Note Singing at Wofford

Date/Time: 3/15/2008 9:00:00 AM

Location: AAAS Room, Burwell Building

Cost: Free

For the past 14 years Wofford has been the host for the South Carolina State Shape-Note Singing in

For the past 14 years, Wofford has been the host for the South Carolina State Shape Note Singing in memory of William Walker. A Spartanburg resident, "Singin' Billy" Walker, helped bring musical literacy to remote country churches around the South in the mid-1800's by collecting and arranging Appalachian folks spirituals for a cappella four-part harmony. As audiences saw in the movie "Cold Mountain," singers who come from all over the Southeast will use both the Christian Harmony and Sacred Harp, the most important of the early fa-so-la hymnals. Everyone is encouraged to participate, but you may just watch if you wish. The program begins at 9 a.m. and continues until about 3 p.m. in the AAAS Room of the Burwell Building. Admission is free — Come and go as your schedule permits — No experience required - No pre-registration. For more information, contact Doyle Boggs.

"Head-On" Screening and Discussion

Date/Time: 3/18/2008 7:00:00 PM

Location: Olin Theater

Cost: Free

Details: "Head-On" is a raw German film about a young Turkish-German woman who finds herself trapped between her traditional, restrictive upbringing and the freedom that those outside of her culture may exercise. Through a marriage of convenience, she finds her escape, but she soon realizes that her freedom comes with a multitude of undesirable consequences, including love. This film brutally portrays the situation in which many young Turkish-German women find themselves today. Following the screening of this film, a brief discussion led by Dr. Krick-Aigner, Claudia Winkler, and Mary Beth Broadwater will take place.

Reminder Of Campus Parking Rules

Details: Campus Safety reminds students to be familiar with the college parking rules. These are located on the Campus Safety website. The Traffic Commission recently confirmed the current list of approved student parking spaces. Of particular note, the commission clarified questions about parking adjacent to Papadopoulos, in the bookstore lot and in Butler Circle. The following outlines parking rules in those areas: • Marked spaces along the Papadopoulos curb and the 10-12 spaces across from Papadopoulos are intended for Faculty, Staff and Visitors during business hours (7:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.) Students may park in both sets of spaces at other times (overnight and on weekends) – unless special events by Development or Admissions would preclude that. • Parking on the circle itself is not permitted except for service vehicles and by students on moving in/out days when supervised by staff and/or Campus Safety. • Parking in the Bookstore Lot is reserved for customers during business hours (8 a.m. - 5:30p.m.) but can be used by students overnight and on weekends except for special events where the bookstore is open on weekends.

Safety on Liberty Trail

Details: Campus Safety reminds students, faculty and staff to take care and watch out for suspicious persons while exercising on Liberty Trail and to keep property with them at all times. On March 17 at 8:30 p.m. two students laid down their cell phones, keys, and a jacket on a bench on the trail while they ran on the trail. A middle-aged, thin black male took their property while the students jogged. The man did not approach the students but certainly could have. Campus Safety encourages students to never go on the trail or surrounding area alone. Students should avoid using the trail at or close to dark.

Subject: Special Announcement: Visitation for Lyn Pace's father Tuesday, 3-5 p.m.
Date: March 24, 2008 at 10:17 AM
To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

A public visitation for Lyn Pace's father, Phil Pace, will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow (Tuesday, March 25) at Floyd's Pacolet Chapel in Pacolet, S.C.

The family will hold a private committal service.

Directions to Floyd's Pacolet Chapel:

From campus, take North Church Street toward downtown Spartanburg and turn left onto St. John Street. Take a right onto Pine Street and go 10 to 12 miles to a stoplight; the Lighthouse Fish Camp will be on the right. Turn left at light (do not go under the railroad trestle). Stay on this road for approximately 2.5 - 3 miles until you pass Pacolet First Baptist Church and the Post Office. Turn left on the first street after Post Office (Memorial Drive). Pacolet Chapel is ½ block on the left.

NOTE: The Spartanburg Herald-Journal erroneously reported that the visitation would be held at the church, but it will be held at Floyd's Pacolet Chapel.

Talk by Sandy Ressler

Date/Time: 3/25/2008 11:00:00 AM

Location: Olin 210

Cost: Free

Details: Sandy Ressler, a program manager at the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), will give a talk, "3D Computer Graphics and the World Wide Web." Abstract: For nearly 10 years, a number of 3D standards and de-facto specifications have been created to bring the experience of 3D computer graphics to the casual Web surfer. These graphic standards have been wildly hyped, some of them have been moderately successful, and most have vanished along with the companies that were doing the hype. This talk will explore the excitement and hype of 3D graphics on the Web, including good, bad and silly applications that purport to be Web3D. Appropriate and inappropriate uses of 3D for the Web will be demonstrated and discussed. (Sponsored by the Wofford Student Chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery.) All are welcome.

To: The Wofford Community
From: President Dunlap

The members of the 2008 Presidential Seminar have asked me to invite you to what has become an annual spring event at Wofford—a live performance of Sophocles' great play "Antigone." The innovative production of this classical tragedy dealing with justice, gender, and speaking truth to power will take place at 3 p.m. tomorrow (Wednesday, March 26), in the McMillan Theater. Each year for the past decade, graduating seniors have attempted to outdo all previous productions. Rumors have it that this year will be very special.

Subject: Announcement from Dr. Jim Neighbors: Symposium on Citizenship and Leadership
Date: March 27, 2008 at 9:00 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

W

Colleagues:

Please find attached the poster and brochure we've developed for the upcoming Wofford College Symposium on Citizenship and Leadership. The Symposium will be held April 12-24 and most of the events will be in McMillan Theater or the Anna Todd Wofford Center. A variety of topics will be addressed from a number of disciplines and perspectives, and each presentation has been designed to allow for as much audience participation as possible. The idea is to promote public discussion on issues central to questions of citizenship and leadership. We're circulating the poster and brochure now to ask your help in promoting the Symposium to your students; please feel free as well to send the poster and/or brochure to colleagues at other institutions, and friends (and foes!), community/upstate organizations, churches, etc. We're hoping for big crowds and people from many walks of life. Feel free to contact me with questions. Thanks, Jim Neighbors (x4608 / neighborsjr@wofford.edu)

Turtle Island Quartet Performs Saturday at Chapman Cultural Center

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – March 24, 2008 – Tickets remain for two-time Grammy-award winner Turtle Island Quartet's Saturday, March 29 concert at the David Reid Theatre at the Chapman Cultural Center.

The Los Angeles Times calls the Turtle Island Quartet's latest CD "A Love Supreme: The Legacy of John Coltrane," a "sterling example of first-rate jazz music-making." Turtle Island Quartet was awarded a Grammy award for Best Classical Crossover Album for the release. The group also receive a Grammy for its previous release, 2006's "4 + Four with the Ying Quartet."

Turtle Island Quartet (www.tisq.com) includes David Balakrishnan, violin; Mads Tolling, violin; Jeremy Kittel, viola; and Mark Summer, cello.

Tickets are $25 for adults, $23 for senior and $20 for students, and can be purchased by calling (864) 542-ARTS, online at www.chapmanculturalcenter.org, or at the Chapman Cultural Center ticket office at 200 East St. John Street.

About Turtle Island Quartet

Turtle Island Quartet (www.tisq.com) includes David Balakrishnan, violin; Mads Tolling, violin; Jeremy Kittel, viola; and Mark Summer, cello. The Quartet's birth was the result of violinist David Balakrishnan's brainstorming explorations and compositional vision while writing his master's thesis at Antioch University West," according to the group's web site. "The journey has taken Turtle Island through forays into folk, bluegrass, swing, be-bop, funk, R&B, rock, hip-hop, as well as music of Latin America and India . . . a repertoire consisting of hundreds of ingenious arrangements and originals.

About the Chapman Cultural Center

The Chapman Cultural Center (www.chapmanculturalcenter.org) is nearing completion in downtown Spartanburg on the northwest corner of East St. John Street and North Converse Street, adjacent to Barnet Park. The three-building campus comprises 86,000 gross square feet, providing space for visual and performing arts, science and history. The Chapman Cultural Center is scheduled for opening on October 3, 2007.
